Donation Day.

It seems hardly necessary to remind a community in which so much good has been done by this never ceasing charity that the Home needs money and articles of substantial value that repairs are necessary and food has to be supplied, for which money is lacking.

These things are for the support of old ladies, nearly every one of whom is sick and helpless; for the employment of a matron and three servants, by whom all the work of the establishment is done.

A lunch will be served at 1 P. M. in the Home on February 22d by the president and members of the board, to which visitors are cordially invited, that they may inspect the manner in which the Home is carried on and partake of its hospitality.
